

The Tampa convention of the American Federation of Labor dealt very directly and decisively with the division which had been created within the ranks of labor through the formation of the Committee for Industrial Organizations.

The Executive Council of the American Federation of Labor decided, after

(Continued on Page 2)

